SUBJECT: Contributions to Executive Development
Core Course No. 3

1. The Executive Development Staff, Office of Training and Education, conducted Executive Development Core Course No. 3, 19 February - 1 March 1985, for newly promoted SIS-01 officers. The second week of the Course was a seminar on terrorism as an Agency and Intelligence Community issue. Several managers and technical personnel explained and demonstrated the technical collection responsibilities and capabilities of your office provided in support of counterterrorist operations of the Operations Directorate and the Intelligence Community. Also included was [REDACTED]

All of the presentations and events were well given and well received.

2. I want to thank you for making the officers available and to commend them for their contributions to the program. I know the arrangements necessary for the displays and demonstrations were extensive and required a considerable amount of time and effort by your people. Their interest and commitment is very evident and this part of the program was, indeed, a high spot of the Course. Please extend my appreciation to:
